This advance was found to be insufficient in the case of Cuddalore Munsiffs Court and it was raised to Rs 300 first as a temporary measure but was subsequently made permanent on the recommendation of the Chief Court. But the Security Amount of the Vazir was at the same time raised to Rs 300.

2 Under Rule XVII of the said rules, the Chief Court may at its discretion increase or reduce the permanent advance of any particular Deputy Vazir.

3 In the present case, it is proposed to raise the Security furnished by the Deputy Vazir of the Chickballapur Munsiffs Court to Rs 300 if considered necessary.

4 But it is not known if the proper work of the Chickballapur Munsiffs Court even with its extended jurisdiction is as heavy as that of Cuddalore Munsiffs Court and requires an increased advance. If necessary a reference may be made on this point to the Registrar of the Chief Court. 5 Submitted for orders

Bangalore, dated 3rd October 1907.

From,

V.A.Rajaratna Mudaliar Esq.,
Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore.

To,

U.L.Mazumdar Esq.,
Financial Secretary to Government.

Sir,

I am directed to state that the Munsiff of Chickballapur reports that the permanent advance granted to the Deputy Nazir of his Court viz., ₹.200/- as per para XVII of the Nazarat rules, Notification dated 25th January 1905, is hardly sufficient to cope with the processes issued for service and requests that the same may be raised to ₹.300/-. Owing to the abolition of the Munsiff's Court at Dodballapur the territorial jurisdiction of the Chickballapur Munsiff's Court has been extended over the taluks of Devanhalli, Dodballapur and Goribidanur and the process work of this Court has in consequence considerably increased. I am to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the advance being raised to ₹.300/-. The security furnished by the Deputy Nazir, if considered necessary, will be raised to ₹.300/-.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

V Rajaratnam
